

Interested in Becoming a Texas A&M University Press Book Seller?

About the Press

Texas A&M University Press was founded in 1974 and is located in the John H. Lindsey building on campus in College Station, TX. We publish 60+ titles a year and distribute titles for eight other university and small presses in Texas (The Texas Book Consortium). We work directly with a variety of retail establishments all over the state of Texas and across the United States, and we ship our books straight from our own warehouse.

How to Sell TAMU Press Books

There are generally three different categories that vendors fall under when selling TAMU Press publications:

Specialty Account

- Retail establishments that order one title only: 40% discount + shipping
- Completion of minimal Texas state required resale tax paperwork (provided by TAMU Press for your convenience)

Pre-Paid Account

- Retail accounts that order more than one title from TAMU Press or the Texas Book Consortium: 45% discount
- Completion of minimal Texas state required resale tax paperwork (provided by TAMU Press for your convenience)
- No credit check as account is pre-paid before order is shipped

Net 30 Account

- Retail accounts that order more than one title from TAMU Press or the Texas Book Consortium: 45% discount
- Minimal Texas state required resale tax paperwork (provided by TAMU Press for your convenience); three credit references required
- Account is invoice with Net 30 terms
